Happiness – what is that? It is a terrific word with a lot of significations and for us it today means that we are convinced that the turbulence in the financial markets has hit our trade very slightly. But we can neither avoid to acknowledge that it also means that we are very comfortable that the Swedish stock exchange raised 8,5% the last week nor that the spring finally came to Malmö this weekend!

As usual we had a very international auction room with clients from many countries and agents representing all continents. The climax of the telephone bidding was a three-hour live bidding with an American stamp dealer. One of the biggest Swedish TV stations also considered our auction so interesting that they had a short but very high-quality feature in the morning news.

We think that the result list speaks for itself but just to mention a few results we will bring out the “TOE” error that sold for €25 000 and the Danish West Indies cover that went for €30 000. Investing in nice stamps looks more interesting nowadays when the bank interest rate is more or less zero!

Last weekend we spent at NorrPhil 2009, which offered extremely high standard exhibits and a lot of visitors. The highlight was of course that “The Silver Postiljon” was awarded to the world famous philatelist Mr Joseph Hackmey for his outstanding exhibit of Cape of Good Hope.

Finally we just want to thank you all and we are really looking forward to see many of you at NORDIA 2009 and IBRA '09.

Have a real nice summer!
