After view

It is now time to summarize our third auction this year as well as a very hectic weekend. The weather conditions were somewhat variable which in a way we can also say about this sale.

We already know that we have many very satisfied consigners and most of the highlights went well or very well. One of the consigners to “The Saga Sale” also emphasized the professional and extensive marketing of his collection. We have never before had so many bidders from Iceland in the auction room as this time, maybe they wanted to improve their exhibits for Nordia 2013 in Gardabær.

In the Swedish section we are especially happy with the nice price for “The Lost Cover” that sold for € 9.000. Congratulations to Swedish philately for bringing this cover back into the light. The small but fantastic Norwegian part attracted several of our friends from there to visit Malmö and resulted in prices far above the starting levels. We also showed that we are able to sell cornflakes related philatelic items, Lot No. 1600 that we told you about in the preface in the auction catalogue sold for € 17.500 to an international buyer.

We would also like to quote a very excited collector entering the viewing room; “I will not be able to buy all I want but it is such a joy to look at all these fantastic items!” (If this was Facebook many would probably have pressed the “Like” button.)

In less than a month we are crossing the bridge for Nordia 2012 in Roskilde 2-4 November, the biggest philatelic event in Denmark since Hafnia 1987. We are proud to be a sponsor of this exhibition and wish you most welcome to our stand No. 51.

Autumn, winter and cold are approaching – in other words perfect stamp weather!
