After view

Now it is time to summarize another auction weekend. This time it also included a small but very interesting numismatic auction, primarily based on an extensive collection of gold coins built during decades starting in the 1970s. We are very pleased to note that all the items were sold and that the total starting prices were more than doubled.

Our stamp auction started on the Friday afternoon with Denmark that has got a new renaissance. After many years with little demand some new collectors, building exhibition collections, have positively influenced the market. We hope this will continue and look very much forward to seeing these exhibits.

The last day we started with the non-Scandinavian countries and as is often the case, the Chinese lots received the absolutely largest number of book-bids per item. However, the big happening in this section was the sale of a fantastic collection of different South African areas in two stock books, the winner was an excited Danish collector who got it for € 29.000. Worth mentioning is also the extensive cover lot from a collector's estate that went from € 750 to € 10.500!

As usual we could present a nice section of Swedish Skilling Banco items for which there is a great demand as always. We also offered and sold a Sperati forgery of the famous colour error 3 Sk. Bco yellow, the closest most of us can get to owning this rarity. Two fantastic proofs of the bicoloured Numeral Type sold for more than six times their starting prices.

There is always a new auction and we are already working with the next one. Consignments are welcome and we are travelling a lot to make it easier for you to meet us. For example you can meet us in Copenhagen at KPK:s exhibition Filatelistisk Selskab 100 år 18-20 October and in Monaco at MonacoPhil 2019 28-30 November.

Welcome!
